What's new with Zain...

So exciting to give the latest news on this talented D:Raf Artist, Zain Mitchlan. Since we last mentioned in D:Raf News Zain's last single 'Let Me Out Of Here' has gone from strength to strength, and has picked up much interest from the Australian Music industry. At the moment Zain is managed by V-Maree Management, who has worked really hard to get maximum exposure for it's talented artist.

Danny Rafael has also worked hard to ensure that Zain has a lot of material to select from in the D:Raf Archives. "There are many powerful songs, that Zain is working on in my Studio, it's just a matter of which one will trigger a response from the Australian public”, predicts Danny Rafael.

D:Raf has been so excited about the positive progress and attitude Zain has had in his pursuit to create his own music. “Thank you for helping me out so much along the way, I love being able to work with people who are passionate about what they do, it really is inspiring”, Zain exclaims.

Zain has also made a few YouTube videos of cover songs with other artists. One that has peaked a lot of interest has been his duet with the Talented Rachel Costanzo on the Song ‘Start Again’. Zain has enlisted the experience of D:Raf to show how you can get a decent recording for YouTubing purposes with limited audio equipment. “So many of us think we need thousands of dollars of equipment, but you’ve proven that it can be just a simple App”, explains Zain.

It is really amazing how much your audio quality is improved by tweaking Dynamics and EQ, and knowing what your listening out for. “Zain has a great ear for audio quality, and it’s a pleasure to show techniques that I have acquired, to someone that I know appreciates it, and will capitalize upon it”, promotes Danny Rafael.

Zain is also preparing for his single launch of ‘Let Me Out Of Here’ at Melbourne’s Famous Revolver on the 13th of November. Zain always puts on an impressive show and his voice is sure to lurer new fans to his fold.

“That’s what I love about the music industry, it becomes a family”
